Special Instructions	Dear Ms. Keiling, If you have not already responded to the Mediation option proposal, please do so. If you agree to mediation, sign the Mediation form that was sent to you and return it in your reply through the Message Center. If you are not open to mediation, reply to the message stating that you are not interested. Once a response to the mediation proposal and the filing fee has been paid, the Department will move forward with the Process within the next few business days. If you have a question in the meantime, send us a message and include your file number in the text. Thank you, ADRE
