Hello Michele

After your last email to me about the camera installation, I reached out to the HOA attorney for a legal opinion. I forwarded your email to him for review. He advised that you are currently in violation for an exterior change with approval. You have been sent the information for your physician to fill out since you are requesting accommodations due to a disability. I am going to give you another week to get that information back to the board for review. If you are unable to submit your ARC request and the doctor authorization letter, I will have to start the violation process. I have to treat all homeowners, even board members, the same. Any other homeowner that makes an exterior change would have been sent a notice at first observation. Please let me know how you'd like to handle this.

Thank You

Shannon L. Plessel
