shall not be personally liable to the Corporation for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director. Further, a director shall be immune from civil liability and shall not be subject to suit directly or by way of contribution for any act or omission resulting in damage or injury while acting in good faith and within the scope of his or her official capacity. Neither this provision nor any other provision in these Articles shall eliminate the liability of the director for any of the following: A. Any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the Corporation; B. Acts or omissions which are not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law; C. Any violation of Arizona Revised Statutes; D. Any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit. Article 12 Net Earnings No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article 3. Article 13 Dissolution Upon the dissolution of the Corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provisions for the payment of all of the liabilities of the Corporation, grant, convey, and assign the assets to a non-profit Corporation, association, trust, or other organization devoted to the purposes and uses that would most nearly reflect the purposes and uses to which they were required to be devoted by the Association. Any such assets not disposed of shall be disposed of by the Pima County Superior Court, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes. Article 14 Amendment Amendment of these Articles shall require the approval of 67% of the Eligible Members who are present in person or by absentee ballot at a duly-held meeting of the Corporation, provided the quorum requirement in the Bylaws is met.
