v.

LA FUENTE CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION

JONATHAN S WALLACK

JUDGE J. SMITH

MINUTE ENTRY

The parties' inability to communicate has led to them filing several submissions that put unnecessary burdens on Court staff and waste judicial resources.

IT IS ORDERED that neither side may file another submission unless (1) it first seeks and receives permission from the Court or (2) the Court directs the party to file a document in an order. A party seeking permission must file a short statement that cannot exceed two pages describing what that party intends to file and why. There will not be any response. The Court will sanction a self-represented party or lawyer who violates this order $250.00 per occurrence.
