Re: Gayer v. Brauer/Willo Neighborhood Association
Case No. CV 2008-029900

Dear Judge Blakey, Judge Willett, and Mr. Jeanes:

On June 19, 2009, Plaintiff filed a Notice of Dismissal of Entire Action without Prejudice pursuant to Rule 41(a)(1), A.R.C.P. A conformed copy of this Notice is enclosed. For some reason, the court's docket does not reflect that this pleading was filed.

On July 8, 2009, Judge Blakey issued a ruling on Defendants' previously-pending Motion to Dismiss, granting the motion with regard to Defendant Bradley Brauer and denying the motion as to the Willo Neighborhood Association. A copy of the minute entry is enclosed for the court's convenience. Recently, this matter was reassigned to Judge Willett.

Please place Plaintiff's Notice of Dismissal on the docket and in the Court's file, dismiss the case, and take whatever additional action, if any, the Court deems appropriate with regard to the July 8, 2009, ruling in light of the prior dismissal.

Very truly yours,

Luane Rosen
