Counsel and any parties representing themselves shall submit exhibits to the courtroom clerk, no later than 3 p.m. on September 24, 2018. The exhibits will be marked serially, Plaintiff's first, Defendant's second. Prior to presenting the exhibits to the clerk, counsel shall also meet and confer to eliminate any duplicate exhibits.

Do not place exhibits in a notebook when submitting them to the clerk for marking and do not submit stacks of loose paper with rubber bands or binder clips. Individual exhibits consisting of multiple pages shall be bound by staples or two-prong fasteners. If the exhibit(s) is too voluminous to be bound in that fashion, binders may be used.

The Court requires each party to provide a set of exhibits for the party's use, a set for each opposing attorney or, if an opposing party is self-represented, for each self-represented opponent, an official set for the clerk to mark and the parties to use during the trial, and a set for the Judge to use during the trial.
