

1 Pursuant to Rule 45 Ariz. R. Civ. P., the Plaintiff does not require leave of the Court
2 to issue subpoenas. Therefore, Plaintiff's Motion should be denied.

3 Plaintiff continues to show a patent misunderstanding of the Arizona Rules of Civil
4 Procedure, which leaves the Defendants having to respond to inappropriate Motions.
5 Based on the Plaintiff's demonstrated behavior in this case, Plaintiff should be prohibited
6 from filing another Motion unless so authorized by the Court and if such an Order is 7 violated, the Court should dismiss her case in its entirety. Otherwise, the Plaintiff will 8 continue to file inappropriate motions that frustrate justice.
9

11 As such, the Defendants request that the Court deny the Plaintiff's Motion in its 12 entirety, order the Plaintiff to reimburse the Defendants their reasonable attorney's fees
13 and costs incurred by the Defendants to respond to the Motion and order the Plaintiff to 14 cease filing inappropriate Motions that only serve to frustrate justice and elongate the 15 litigation.
